‘...he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death – even death on a cross!’

‘Give back to Caesar
what is Caesar’s and to God what is God’s.’
Mark 12:17

A photograph capturing a poignant moment between a young man and a police officer. The young man, wearing a red hoodie, is seen from the side, embracing the officer. The officer is in full riot gear, including a helmet with a visor and a shield. The officer's helmet has the number '117' on it. Other officers in riot gear are visible in the background, some with numbers like '116555', '24407', and '0214'. The scene is set outdoors, possibly during a protest or a public gathering. The text 'Absurd Generosity' and 'Luke 6.27-36' is overlaid on the image in a large, white, sans-serif font.
